

Cotemar signs a collaboration agreement with the UANL A.C. Foundation

June 28, 2021

Monterrey, Nuevo León.- With the intent of promoting and motivating the development of young professionals, Grupo Cotemar signed a collaboration agreement with the UANL A.C. (Autonomous University of Nuevo Leon) Foundation in support of the institution's goals and to promote education in this region of Mexico.

The mission of the UANL A.C. Foundation is to support the comprehensive education of university students, especially those with talent, commitment, scarce financial resources, and a great desire to get ahead and is a key ally for the UANL that has 216 thousand active students.

"The UANL is among the top 3 universities in Mexico in terms of quality and academic offerings. It is also the top-ranking university for the generation of scientific research patents and is among the top 5 universities in terms of graduate employability. Therefore, it is a pleasure for Cotemar to support the Foundation in the achievement of its objectives," said an internal Cotemar source.

Cotemar's Corporate Social Responsibility program promotes projects that provide easy access to opportunities and a better quality of life that will also strengthen the well-being of our employees and the community, as well as caring for the environment.

Cotemar is a company with social empathy that works based on its institutional values: Integrity, Effectiveness, Innovation, Collaboration, and Responsibility.
